Important Dates

Reception's Christmas performance will be Thursday 13th Dec at 2:30pm in the main hall. Please come and watch your child if you can.

The Value of the month is RESPECT. At home you could talk to your child about the importance of respecting other people's faith's nearer to Christmas.

Please bring in any old or unwanted wrapping paper.

Literacy

In Literacy this week we will be learning about the Christmas nativity story. We will be discussing why Christmas is an important celebration for some people. If you want to support your child further, you could read different versions of the Christmas nativity story and discuss what Christmas means to you or others.

Maths

In maths this week will be looking at one less than an amount. If children notice numbers in the environment, challenge them to tell you what one less than that number is.
