

Year 2 Newsletter

Friday 17th May 2019

Dear Parents/Carers,

Dear Parents/Carers, We would like to remind you to bring your children to school on time every day. Attendance is extremely important to your children's progress, therefore we would encourage you to make sure your children attend regularly. Thank you for all your hard work and cooperation.

Important

Year 2 SATs are happening next week, from 20th till 24th of May.

During SATs week

- Make sure your children go to bed early, have their breakfast and bring a bottle of water with them.
- Bring the children to their class door and leave them with a member of staff.
- You do not need to stay for early morning challenge so we can prepare the children and the rooms for SATs.
- No parents should be in the library area during SATs week.

Maths Focus

In Maths, year-2 children are working on range of word problems. This includes addition, subtraction, multiplication and division.
